ISSUE: 4

October 2026

From the Chairman's Desk

A Memorandum of Understanding (MoU) was signed on 1st Sept., 2026 between the Institution of Engineers (India) Meerut Local Centre and Sir Chhotu Ram Institute of Engineering and Technology CCSU, Meerut for collaborating technical activities, skill development and the professional networking.

Chaudhary Charan Singh University authorities have provided an office building to the IEI Meerut Local Centre for the efficient functioning of the activities.

Currently, the world is passing through a period of significant geopolitical uncertainty. Conflicts and tensions in different parts of the world, particularly in West Asia and Europe, together with disruptions to international trade, shipping routes, energy supplies and global supply chains, are affecting nations far beyond the regions directly involved.

The continuing situation in Gaza and the wider Middle East, as well as the Russia–Ukraine conflict, reminds us that lasting peace cannot be achieved through confrontation alone. Dialogue, diplomacy, respect for international law and protection of civilian lives must remain central to resolving disputes. India has consistently emphasised dialogue, diplomacy and peaceful settlement of international differences. The recent BRICS declaration has likewise stressed conflict prevention, diplomacy and the protection of civilians and critical infrastructure.

For India, these developments have important implications for energy security, economic stability, technology, manufacturing and infrastructure. At the same time, India's growing engagement with different countries and its emphasis on strategic autonomy provide opportunities to contribute constructively to a more stable and balanced international environment.

The present geopolitical environment also highlights the importance of developing indigenous technological capabilities and resilient infrastructure. A technologically strong and self-reliant India can contribute more effectively to global peace, prosperity and sustainable development.

The engineering community must therefore remain forward-looking, innovative and committed to professional ethics. Let us use our knowledge and expertise not only to build a stronger India, but also to contribute to a world based on peace, cooperation, sustainability and shared human progress.

Personal disputes or differences must be resolved by mutual discussion and cooperation setting aside the individual ego for the overall benefit of the World and the Institution of Engineers (India).

From Hony. Secretary's Desk

Dear friends,

We are passing through a volatile atmosphere of war at various fronts of world along with trade wars at international level. However we are on a path of growing economy and sustainable development. We celebrated our 80th Independence day with several commitments and our PM announced new measures to boost development and progress towards ultimate aim of Viksit Bharat 2047.

On local front, another good news is there. We achieved long cherished wish of transferring our IEI local centre to establish in prestigious Chaudhary Charan Singh University campus. The MOU WAS SIGNED BETWEEN IEI MEERUT AND CCSU ON 1st September 26, which paved the way for better co-operation between the two. University can contact Engineering experts of IEI for research, innovations, incubation and start ups. Although the present management of IEI LC Meerut is responsible for this major milestone, but I would like to thank all previous officials who made efforts.

During the 3 months, we arranged a lecture on nano technology to give variety of knowledge to our members. Also Engineers day was celebrated at Muzzafarnagar, the outstation part of Meerut LC. Please give suggestions for more activities.

Auditor's Report:-

1. Report on the Financial Statements-

Opinion:-

We have audited the accompanying financial statements of The Institution of Engineers (India), Meerut Local Centre ("the Institution"), which comprises the Balance Sheet as at March 31st ,2026, signed by us under reference to this report and the related Income and Expenditure Account and the Cash Flow Statement for the Year then ended and notes to the financial statements, including a summary of the significant accounting policies and other explanatory information (hereinafter referred to as 'financial statements') [in which have been incorporated the returns /account received from the Local Centre, Meerut of the institution for the year ended 31st March, 2026 as audited by other auditors and which have been relied upon by us].

In our opinion and to the best of our information and according to the explanations given to us, the aforesaid financial statements of the Institution give the information in accordance with the generally accepted accounting principles and the applicable Accounting Standards issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India and read with the Other Matters paragraph below, give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the Institution as at March 31, 2026 its surplus/ (deficit) and its cash flows for the year ended on that date.

2. Basis for Opinion:-

We conducted our audit of the financial statements in accordance with the Standards on Auditing (SA) issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India. Our responsibilities under those Standards are further described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements section of our report. We are independent of the Institution in accordance with the Code of Ethics issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India (ICAI) together with the independence requirements that are relevant to our audit of the financial statements and we have fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with these requirements and the ICAI's Code of Ethics. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion on the financial statements.

3. Management's Responsibility for the Financial Statements:-

Management is responsible for the preparation of these financial statements that give a true and fair view of the state of affairs and result of operation of the Institution in accordance with the accounting principles generally accepted in India, including the applicable Accounting Standards. This responsibility also includes maintenance of adequate accounting records for safeguarding the assets of the Institution and for preventing and detecting frauds and other irregularities, selection and application of appropriate accounting policies, making judgment and estimates that are reasonable and prudent and design, implementation and maintenance of adequate internal financial controls, that were operating effectively for ensuring the accuracy and completeness of the accounting records, relevant to the preparation and presentation of the financial statements that give a true and fair view and are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the financial statements, management is responsible for assessing the Institution's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless management either intends to liquidate the Institution or to cease operations, or has no realistic alternative but to do so.

The management of the Institution is responsible for overseeing the Institution's financial reporting process.

4. Auditor's Responsibility:-

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with SAs will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these financial statements.

As part of an audit in accordance with SAs, we exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit. We also:

Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.

Obtain an understanding of internal financial controls relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances.

Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by management.

Conclude on the appropriateness of management's use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the Institution's ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditor's reports to the related disclosures in the financial statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditor's report. However, future events or conditions may cause the Institution to cease to continue as a going concern.

Evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the financial statements, including the disclosures, and whether the financial statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.

Obtain sufficient appropriate audit evidence regarding the financial information of the Institution to express an opinion on the financial statements. We are responsible for the direction, supervision and performance of the audit of the financial statements of the Institution of which we are the independent auditors. For the financial statements of the branches incorporated in these financial statements which has been audited by other auditors, such other auditors remain responsible for the direction, supervision and performance of the audit carried out by them. We remain solely responsible for our audit opinion.

Materiality is the magnitude of misstatements in the financial statements that, individually or in aggregate, makes it probable that the economic decisions of a reasonably knowledgeable user of the financial statements may be influenced. We consider quantitative materiality and qualitative factors in (i) planning the scope of our audit work and in evaluating the result of our work; and (ii) to evaluate the effect of any identified misstatements in the financial statements.

We communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.

We also provide those charged with governance with a statement that we have complied with relevant ethical requirements regarding independence, and to communicate with them all relationships and other matters that may reasonably be thought to bear on our independence, and where applicable, related safeguards.

Other Matters
Disclosure on other matters has been reported in the Annexure-III annexed herewith along with other observation stated below. Our opinion is not modified in respect of these matters.

We further report that:

1. We have sought and obtained all the information and explanations which to the best of our knowledge and belief were necessary for the purpose of the audit;
2. In our opinion proper books of accounts as required by law have been kept by the Institution so far as appears from our examination of those books;
3. The Balance Sheet, the Statement of Income and Expenditure and the Cash Flow Statement dealt with in this Report are in agreement with the books of account.
4. We further report that according to the information and explanation given to us:
 - i. The Institution has disclosed the impact of pending litigations on its financial position in its financial statements.
 - ii. The Institution did not have any long-term contracts including derivative contracts for which there may be any material foreseeable losses.

It uses materials like:

Zinc Oxide - Dirt repellent, hydrophobic, cosmetic and stain resistant.

Silver ion – Healing property.

Aluminium silicate- Scratch resistant.

Gold ion - Chip fabrication, drug delivery.

Nano technology has its application in various fields viz Energy, Medicine & drugs, Nano-biotechnology, Nano devices, Optical engineering, Defence & security, Bio engineering, Cosmetics and Nano fabrics. In cancer it provides new options for drug therapies.

He further said that in India IIT Mumbai is the premier organisation in the field of nanotechnology. Research in the fields of health, environment and medicine is still going on.
